Hospitality, Lodging & Tourism Opportunities!

Hospitality, Lodging, & Tourism encompass the management, marketing, and operation of restaurants, lodging, attractions, recreation events, and travel related services.

ALL hospitality and tourism service workers need to possess good customer service skills. The Hospitality, Lodging, and Tourism YA program is structured to require industry-wide foundational skills and industry-specific technical skills.

This school-to-work program offers a variety of experiences and is applicable for a student who has expressed an interest in customer service, culinary arts, travel, tourism, lodging, or a hospitality business management career. This program makes for an attractive career option for students with a strong desire to work with many different people in travel and leisure services.

Where can I work?

Worksites can be chosen from any number of Hospitality and Tourism establishments engaged in a number of travel and leisure activities, ranging from sit-down restaurants with banquet facilities to hotels & motels to attractions, museums, amusements and parks.

What will I learn?

YA students are required to perform all of the Core Employability and Safety & Security skills at the worksite. In addition, Level One (one year) YA students choose technical competencies from a MINIMUM of TWO units while Level Two (two year) YA students complete competencies from a MINIMUM of FOUR units.

What are the specific unit choices?

- Restaurants– Dining Area
- Restaurants– Kitchen Area
- Lodging– Front Office
- Lodging– Housekeeping
- Reservations & Tour/Activity
- Management
- Marketing & Sales
- Meetings & Events
- Maintenance & Grounds
