Proof of Selective Service Registration

In order to be eligible for federal financial aid, males ages 18 through 25 are required to register with the Selective Service. According to information provided on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), it appears that you did not register with the Selective Service. Before we can award you financial aid, please complete this form and return it to us at the address above.

If you did not check any of the boxes above, you are required to register with Selective Service. If you are under age 26, you can still register. You are able to register with Selective Service at www.sss.gov. Please submit proof of your registration with this form.

If you are over age 26, you are not able to register. Therefore, you must complete the following:

- Write to the Selective Service to obtain a status of information letter addressing your failure to register. You may obtain the form you need to complete online from www.sss.gov. You must submit their response with this form.
- Use the back of this form to write a letter to us explaining why you did not register with Selective Service. (Be sure to address the following: where you lived when you were ages 18-25; whether or not you thought you had registered with Selective Service; why you were not aware of the widely publicized requirement to register when you were age 18-25.)
